HOPKINSVILLE BOYS

Defeat The Champions of the South at Basket Ball.

The South Kentucky College basket ball team of Hopkinsville, defeated the Mogney School team at Murfreesboro, Tenn., Friday night by the score of 27 to 18. At the end of the first half the score was 14 to 10 in favor of the Kentucky boys. This is the first time the Mooney team has been defeated in that city since the school has been located there. Last season they held the championship of the South in the preparatory schools. The Kentucky boys have a strong team.

NICE POSITION

Miss Hallie Trainum in Railroad Office.

Richard Kelly, who has for the last two years been chief clerk in the office of Roadmaster J. F. Burns, of the L. & N., at Lebanon, Ky., tendered his resignation, to take effect within a few days. The vacancy has been filled by Miss Hallie Trainum, of this city.

Lee's Birthday.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will hold a special meeting, in honor Robt. E. Lee's birthday, at Hotel Atham at 2 o'clock p. m. Thursday 19th.

"HONEY BEE" A BRIDE.

Miss Annie Fay Barnes Wedded to Mr. Jos. Thomas.

Mr. Joseph Thomas and Miss Annie Fay Barnes, were married at the home of the bride's father, Mr. E. M. Barnes, near Dogwood Chapel, Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. Rev. P. A. Thomas, of Crofton, officiated. The bride is a very attractive and winsome young lady, not much beyond "sweet sixteen." She is known to the readers of the KENTUCKIAN as "Honey Bee," having been our correspondent at Barnes for several years, in fact since she was a little school girl. The KENTUCKIAN extends its congratulations to the groom on his good fortune in winning her, and wishes for them both a long and happy life.

RURAL ROUTE

Out of Crofton to be Established Feb. 15.

Several months ago the citizens of the country West of Crofton sent a petition to Washington, asking that a rural free delivery route be established through that section. The matter has been acted upon favorably and service will be established Feb. 15. The length of the route is 24½ miles, and population served 422.

PREPARING TO TAKE CENSUS.

It Will Embrace All Factories Operating, Except Small Shops.

STATE ENUMERATORS.

Cost of Work For Entire Country Estimated at $600,000

The Census Office is preparing to make an exhaustive census of the manufactories of Kentucky and other states, and a large force of investigators will soon be put in the field to gather statistics. The census will embrace all establishments that are operated on the factory system, and will exempt only the small neighborhood shops. However, 95 per cent of the productive capacity of the state will be included. Eighty-four statisticians will be employed in taking the census, of whom 65 will be appointed from the state upon the recommendation of members of Congress and 19 be detailed from the Census Office in Washington. For the most part the Senators and Representatives have already appointed their men.

The cost of the census for the entire country is estimated at $600,000, as against $1,200,000 expended for the same purpose in 1900. The enumerators will be paid $3 a day for their work and it is calculated that it will take about four months to do the work. In Kentucky 18 enumerators will be employed.

Doesn't Need Eyes.

A negro named Geo. Davis, totally blind, is head hostler in a Versailles livery stable. He can tell the age of a horse by feeling its teeth. He can also distinguish between beauty and ugliness by the tone of the person's voice. He is sent out as driver on the darkest nights. His senses of hearing and feeling are so acute, that he apparently does not need eyes.

Owensboro has a club on the order of The Athenaeum in this city. It is called the Investigators, and at its meeting this week one of the papers will be a review of Wagner's "The Simple Life."

FARMERS HOLD MEETING AT FAIRVIEW.

Chas. E. Barker and Frank Rives Deliver Addresses.

R. F. VAUGHAN, CH'N.

A Good Attendance of Tobacco Growers And All Enthusiastic.

District Chairman Chas. E. Barker and Mr. Frank Rives held a meeting at Fairview Saturday for the purpose of further organizing the farmers.

Mr. R. F. Vaughan was elected Chairman of the meeting and Messrs. Barker and Rives made speeches.

About 100 planters were present and a good deal of interest was manifested in the protective movement. Some who had not signed before joined in the pledge their neighbors had given.

Want Eight Cents.

A dispatch from Henderson says 400 farmers attended a meeting Saturday, held under the auspices of the Society of Equity for the purpose of fixing the price of tobacco in that county. The principal speaker was L. N. Robertson, of Daviess county. A strong letter was read from Joel B. Fort, of Tennessee, in which he claimed the farmers organization in the Clarksville district was an assured success. The other speakers were Judge Malcolm Yeaman, E. A. Jones, Judge J. H. Hart and Hon. J. Thomas Wilson.

The tangible fruits of the meeting were the appointment of precinct committeemen; who pledged themselves to make a rapid canvass of their respective precincts and secure from the owners of tobacco pledges to the organization that there will be a unity of action and a oneness in price, to wit: Eight cents around from the ground up, or, in other words, that average.

Thos. K. Neidringhaus, chairman of the Republican Committee of Missouri and nominee of his party for U. S. Senator, is under charges of corruption and his election is in grave doubt. The charges are being investigated and are liable to be proven.

DIED IN LOUISVILLE.

Remains Brought Here And Interred Yesterday.

Mrs. A. Edith Ritter Bush, wife of Mr. A. G. Bush, formerly a merchant in this city, died Saturday morning at her home in Louisville. She was taken ill Thursday night, and, becoming unconscious, remained in that condition until relieved by death.

Mrs. Bush was formerly Miss Edith A. Ritter and was a sister of Mrs. R. L. Boulware, of this place. She moved with her husband to Louisville ten or twelve years ago. She was about fifty years old.

The remains arrived in this city Sunday and were taken to the residence of Mr. Boulware. The burial will be from his residence at 7 o'clock this morning in Hopewell cemetery. Funeral services will be conducted by Eld. H. D. Smith.

A Broken Press.

The worse break that the Kentuckian's machinery has sustained in many years occurred Saturday afternoon. A sectional part of the cylinder press was broken, and the press will not be able to run until the piece is received from an Eastern factory to-morrow. This issue is printed from the press of one of our contemporaries.

Reception This Afternoon.

Miss Nan Long will entertain this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock, at the home of her parents on South Virginia street.

AT THE BIG RED SIGN!

Sale now under full swing. No let up to bargains; special features for each day. Sale positively closes Saturday night. People read our "ads" last week and were amazed, they came to look, they bought, they showed their neighbors and their neighbors bought, and they are all buying yet, and that's the story of our great sale in a nutshell.

Our greatest care now and during the remainder of the sale will be to guard and retain the confidence the people have shown us by giving values fully as good or better to the late comers as to the first. So come again and keep coming, our stock is immense and we're cutting the price on everything.

John J. Bassford, cooper of 766 E. Second street, says: "My back used to be so lame and sore at times that I determined if real relief was to be brought upon again. The pains were always with me and I could not rest for any length of time without pain. I doctored all I could, but it did not obtain the slightest benefit. My attention was called to an advertisement of Doan's Kidney Pills which I determined to try them. I got a box at Thomas & Traher's drug store and after using them a few days I could not help but notice a marked improvement in my condition. My health is better than it has been in years. I give all the credit to Doan's Kidney Pills and strongly commend them to others."

"For sale by all dealers. Price 50c per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. York, sole agents for the United States."

Speaking of the developments in the defense power of the modern navy of the American navy, as illustrated at the Washington naval gun factory, an experienced machinist and advance worker said to a Washington Star reporter:

"This general development is not due alone to improvements in guns or powder, or projectiles, but to the simultaneous and progressive development of all three.

"Less than half a century ago the heaviest gun known was the 68 pounder. This gun was about nine inches bore, and fired a 68 pound projectile, with a 16-pound charge of gunpowder, but was powerless against four and a half inches of wrought iron. Our battleship to-day are equipped with 12-inch guns, which, with a charge of 400 to 425 pounds of smokeless powder, are capable of driving an 850-pound projectile through 51 inches of solid wrought iron. In olden times it required nearly four minutes to load and fire one of the now obsolete 68-pounders, while the new and terrible 12-inch guns can be loaded and fired in about 50 seconds with perfect safety.

"If a projectile from one of the old 68-pounders hit its mark, it was due to good luck, rather than to good management, but it is a matter of record that our modern 12-inch guns have scored seven hits in less than six minutes at target practice, while our six-inch gun has a record of nine shots and nine hits in one minute."

The statistics of a modern 12-inch breech-loading rifle, as turned out by the naval gun factory, makes an interesting showing. Its weight is 101,360 pounds, or over 45 tons. Its total length, 36 feet 8 inches. The greatest diameter of gun body is 45 inches; total length of bore, 419.20 inches; capacity of chamber, 12.043 cubic inches; total capacity of bore, 51.355 inches; travel of projectile, 346.06 inches; weight of charge, service velocity, 425 pounds; weight of projectile, 850 pounds; ratio of projectile weight to weight of gun, 1:119; chamber pressure, 15 tons; muzzle velocity (service), 2,100 feet per second; thickness of steel which shell will perforate at muzzle 24.16 inches; at 1,500 yards 20.94 inches.

CHIROPODIST IN THE ARMY

Every German Infantry Regiment Has a Foot Specialist-Custom Is Growing.

"Every German infantry regiment has its chiropodist," said a military attaché, "and it won't be many years before all infantry regiments will have their chiropodists, too.

"A foot soldier's efficiency, you see, depends upon his feet. If he gets sore feet, he can't march well—can't advance fast, can't retreat fast. And his feet are apt, unless they are scientifically looked after, to get sore; for it is one thing, you know, to use the feet in an ordinary way, walking three or four miles a day in a city, and it is quite another thing to use them in military fashion, walking 15, 20 and sometimes 30 miles a day over rough country, carrying luggage besides.

"A soldier's feet need looking after, need inspection, just as his gun does. Hence Germany has introduced chiropodists into her army, and the chiropodists hold feet inspection daily. They see that the shoes fit well, that the stockings are in good condition, that blisters and corns don't form.

"It is odd to see in Germany a line of privates having their feet inspected. This sight, though, will be a universal one ere long, and then its appearance of oddity will depart from it."

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

The more Magazines there are, the more Indispensable is The Review of Reviews

"Indispensable."—The one magazine I feel I must take."—The World under a field-glass. "An education in public affairs and current literature."—these are some of the phrases one hears from noted people who read the Review of Reviews. The more magazines there are, the more necessary is the Review of Reviews, because it brings together the best that is in all the most important monthlies of the world. Such is the flood of periodical literature that nowadays people say that the only way to keep up with it is to read the Review of Reviews. Entirely over and above this reviewing section, it has more original matter and illustrations than most magazines, and the most timely and important articles printed in any monthly.

Probably the most useful section of all is Dr. Albert Shaw's illustrated "Progress of the World," where public events and issues are authoritatively and lucidly explained in every issue. Many a subscriber writes, "This department alone is worth more than the price of the magazine." The unique cartoon department, depicting current history in caricature, is another favorite. The Review of Reviews covers five continents, and yet is American, fast and foremost. Men in public life, the members of Congress, professional men, and the great captains of industry who must keep "up with the times," intelligent men and women all over America, have decided that it is "indispensable."

The House broke the record Saturday by passing 459 pension bills in 108 minutes.

Former Mayor J. J. McCue, of Charlottesville, Va., who is to be hanged Jan. 20, has asked Governor Montague for a brief respite in order to close up his business affairs. He was convicted of wife murder.

Representative J. H. Wade, of Campbellville, will be married Wednesday to Miss Maude Higginson and take his bride to Frankfort during the special session of the legislature.

Gov. Adams has had notice of contest filed on him by his predecessor in office, ex-Gov. Peabody. The contest will be tried by the legislature and will take several weeks.

Sarah Bernhardt is in Turkey and the Sultan has stopped her from playing all pieces in which royalty of any degree is represented on the stage.

Senator Blackburn is headed towards Frankfort, breathing defiance to the "state machine," which he says is trying to defeat him for re-election. He declares that he will make the fight of his life and is confident of success next year.

Jas. W. Bess, the white man convicted of strangling his mistress at Lexington, was hanged Friday morning at 8 o'clock. He was a married man and his wife suffered a nervous collapse when she was led from his cell just before the execution.

The State Central Committee held a meeting at Frankfort Saturday and passed upon committee appointments in Louisville, Paducah and other cities. John Vreeland's list in Louisville, notwithstanding Senator Laban Phelps' protest, was confirmed in short order. Later Senator Phelps was allowed to state his reasons for protesting, but the question was not reopened. He is a candidate for Mayor against Paul Barth, who it is said is backed by Mayor Grainger, and claimed he was not permitted to see the list in time to tell whether his interests had been given consideration. The committee also adopted a rule requiring chairmen of conventions to recognize delegations whose credentials were signed by the county or district chairman, in temporary organizations.

MORE COTTONTAILS.

Raised in Hancock Than Any Other County.

Hawesville, Ky., Jan. 16.—That more rabbits are raised in Hancock county than any other county in the state is evident by the great numbers that are annually shipped from here.

Although this is one of the smallest counties in the state in area it is no doubt the largest rabbit market of them all. There was in the neighborhood of thirty thousand rabbits shipped from Hancock county last winter to the big cities, to say nothing of the numbers consumed at home. Indications are that even a larger number than this will be shipped this winter.

One merchant alone here shipped nearly ten thousand, and he says he could use twice as many this winter if he could get them.

Most of the rabbits that are shipped are caught on snares by boys who make it a business of snaring every winter, and few are the boys now a days on a farm who do not have faom ten to twenty or even fifty snares set for "bunny" by the first frost fall.

The snares are made by bending a small bush over and fastening it to a prong, which is driven into the ground, by means of a trigger and button—the button being fastened to the string. A hangman's loop is then made and placed around little pegs driven into the ground. On the trigger is placed a piece of apple just inside the loop so when "brer rabbit" sticks his head in to steal the forbidden fruit it trips the trigger, the string is released, the bush flies back to its original position and jerks the loop tight and the rabbit is killed by a broken neck or by strangulation.

The snares are baited and set every evening, and the owner goes every morning early to see what luck he has had during the night. The catch usually was about one rabbit to every four snares set. The rabbits are brought into market every few days and sold to the merchants at 5 cents each. A rabbit is only worth 5 cents here, it doesn't matter if it is the first catch of the season, the market price being the same all winter. Rabbits are much better than those that are shot, because they are not mutilated in any way. Although the snaring process has been going on for several seasons, there seems to be an abundant supply of rabbits, and one does not have to go out of the city limits to jump one up. In a number of instances darkies have been known to pay as high as 25 to 50 cents for a rabbit that was caught in a graveyard, so that they might get the left hind foot to carry in their pocket to keep away hoodoos, but never could one be induced to eat a rabbit of this kind.

American Boy.

The twelve stories, nearly all of them illustrated, in The American Boy for January ought to make the boys' mouths water. These stories are of great variety, so that every sort of a boy ought to be pleased. Their titles are: "Up a Limb," a hunting story; "For the Mikado," a Japanese war story; "The Scoop of the Bald Eagle," a newspaper story; "The President's Cadet," a story of General Grant; "Pablo Mariscal," a Spanish-American story; "The Wire Fence Telephone," a farm story; "My Four Years at West Point," a school story; "Joyce Thatcher's Race," a farm story; "The Pilot Boys of Norway," a sea story; "A Race With a Stampede," a story of the plains; "Sufficient Unto the Day," a humorous story; "One of the Most Glorious Deeds Ever Done by a Boy," a story of heroism.

This number contains number five of the messages of the Governors to American boys, being that of Governor Cummins of Iowa. 69 illustrations in all. $1.00 a year. The Sprague Publishing Co., Detroit, Mich.

MANVILLE FRAMES

Away After Long Illness.

George P. F. K... died at his home near Kirksville, on the 14th inst., of diabetes, which... he had been suffering from for many years. He was born Oct. 12, 1844. He represented Todd county in the lower branch of the legislature in 1892-3 (the long session). He was a member of the Masonic lodge at Kirksville, and had served as a Master several times. He attended the Grand Lodge in Louisville last October, but his health was such that he had to leave before the session was over. After his return home he improved very much, but of late he took a turn for the worse and died. He leaves a wife and child, as well as a host of friends to mourn his death. Interment took place Monday at the Bass burying grounds, with Masonic honors.—Fairview Review.

DR. POWELL'S BANQUET

Annual Event of State Interest This Week.

The annual banquet of Rev. Dr. E. L. Powell, of the First Christian Church, of Louisville, will be held Thursday night, Jan. 19th.

There will be four responses by speakers of prominence in as many different professions.

Dr. Powell will himself speak to the subject, "Eleven Times One." Rev. Carter Heim Jones, one of the prominent Baptist ministers of Louisville, will take as his subject, "She."

"The Confederate of History and the Confederate of Today," will be discussed by Gen. Basil W. Duke, of Louisville.

Dr. Powell always has a newspaper man in his list of speakers. This time Mr. Wallace T. Hughes, of the Courier-Journal, will answer the question, "What's the matter with Louisville?"

Hon John L. Griffiths, a leading Republican politician of Indianapolis and an orator of State reputation will be the last speaker. His subject will be "The Republic."

A South Dakota widow went into court and enjoined James Hemmings, a persistent suitor, from courting her. After a wait of three weeks Hemmings called and told her he could stay away no longer and the heartless creature had him hauled up before the court and fined $10 for contempt.

Every Two Minutes

Physicians tell us that all the blood in a healthy human body passes through the heart once in every two minutes. If this action becomes irregular the whole body suffers. Poor health follows poor blood; Scott's Emulsion makes the blood pure. One reason why is such a great aid is because it passes so quickly into the blood. It is partly digested before it enters the stomach; a double advantage in this. Less work for the stomach; quicker and more direct benefits. To get the greatest amount of good with the least possible effort is the desire of everyone in poor health. Scott's Emulsion does just that. A change for the better takes place even before you expect it.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

MASS OF SORES

Ears Looked as if They Would Drop Off—Belly Entirely Covered with Humors—Throat Sores Could Not Cure—Child Grew Worse.

CURED BY CUTICURA IN TWO WEEKS

Mrs. George J. Steere, of 707 Colburn St., Akron, Ohio, tells in the following letter of another of those remarkable cures of torturing, disgusting skin humors daily made by Cuticura Soap, assisted by Cuticura Ointment, after physicians, and all else had failed: "I feel it my duty to parents of other poor suffering babies to tell you what Cuticura has done for my little daughter. She broke out all over her body with a humor, and we used everything recommended, but without results. I called in three doctors, they all claimed they could help her, but she continued to grow worse. Her body was a mass of sores, and her little face was eaten away, her ears looked as if they would drop off. Neighbors advised me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and before I had used half of the cake of soap and box of ointment the sores had all healed, and my little one's face and body was as clear as a newborn babe. I would not be without it again if it cost five dollars, instead of seventy-five cents, which is all it cost us to cure our baby, after spending many dollars on doctors and medicine without any benefit whatever."

SLEEP FOR BABIES

Rest for Mothers. Instant relief and refreshing sleep for skin-tortured babies, and rest for tired, fretted mothers, in warm baths with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointings with Cuticura Ointment, the great skin cure, and purest of emollients. Neighbors advised me to get Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and before I had used half of the cake of soap and box of ointment the sores had all healed, and my little one's face and body was as clear as a newborn babe. I would not be without it again if it cost five dollars, instead of seventy-five cents, which is all it cost us to cure our baby, after spending many dollars on doctors and medicine without any benefit whatever."

A put back dealer of Hopkinsville puts his shop window sign that reads:
DOGS TO HIRE
BY DAY, WEEK OR HOUR.
Rates Reasonable.

A man asked the dealer the other day the significance of the sign.

"Oh, it means just what it says," the dealer said. "People like to hire dogs now and then, the same as they like to hire horses or pignones. I clear from this branch of my business quite $10 a week.

"Do you see that handsome Russian wolfhound over there in the corner?" Well, I hire him out to a good deal to young women who are going to be photographed. In England a lot of women of fashion and in America a lot of millionairesses have had their pictures taken at their side. That has set a fashion. Young women all over, nowadays, desire to be photographed with wolf hounds.

"But do you know what a wolf hound like Pete there is worth?"
Well, sir, he is worth $400 or $500.
And do you know what he can be hired for a couple of hours for?
He can be hired for $1.50. Hence he is hired often. He is in great demand. And on the mantel of many a poor man's house you can see to-day the wife's or the daughter's photograph, with a magnificent Russian hound in the foreground.

"Aside from hiring dogs for photographic purposes, I hire them for promenades. Young ladies, visiting the city, like to rent a Boston bull or a wire-haired Irish terrier to walk down Chestnut street with. A good dog on a morning's walk gives a young woman, you see, distinction, and it is now possible, thanks to me, for my girl to achieve this distinction for a dollar or two.

"The dogs there is most demand for are bulls, Boston bulls, terriers and wolf hounds. I require a deposit before I let a dog go out."

INDIANS VOTE IN OKLAHOMA Redskins Attach Great Interest to Election—Cast Ballots for Friends.

At the last election in Oklahoma
three tribes of Indians voted,
says the Kansas City Journal.
These tribes are the Ponca, Pawnee and Otoe. Since the election four years ago these tribes have treated with the government and have allowed their lands to be allotted.
With this the members of the tribes became citizens, with the full power to vote.

The Kaws took the liveliest interest in the election. There are 45 members of the tribe who are entitled to vote, and 23 of this number are full-blooded. Every one of the 45, without exception, voted. The Kaws are nearly all republican. Each Indian who could not read English was allowed two interpreters, a republican and a democrat, who went with him into the booth and assisted him in voting his ticket.
With the Ponca tribe the election was somewhat different. They had no fixed ideas and they wanted to vote as their friends desired.
The judges and clerks worked hard until noon and succeeded in getting only ten of the 100 eligible voters of the tribe to cast their ballots.

New Dilemma.
"Did I hear you say, guard, that the engine was at the rear end of the train?"

"Yes, ma'am; we've got an engine at each end. It takes an extra one to push us up the mountain."

"Dear, dear! What shall I do?
I'm always so deathly ill if I ride
with my back to the engine!"—

France will have two harvests in apples who ship more than a barrel to Europe every year, the information was obtained that they were not so good a prospect of a large shipment of apples to England and this year as last because of the very natural drawback of a large crop of apples harvested in low land.

This may be a measure offset by the steadily increasing demand for American apples which will call for shipments on this side to meet the demand which no number of home grown apples will supply.

It may not be generally known that in 1903, which was the record year for the importation of apples from the United States and Canada to the different markets within the United Kingdom of Great Britain, the total importation reached the enormous number of 3,063,000 barrels. The value of all those barrels of American apples is placed at no less than $7,100,660.
This is quite a jump from the $1,728,925 worth of American apples which were imported by English buyers in 1899. This $7,000, 000 apple crop which went to residents of Great Britain was from the United States in 1903, and Canada sent to the eaters of the American apple over $4,000,000 worth of Canadian apples. All American fruits, whether grown in Great Britain or not, command good prices on the other side of the Atlantic, and, whereas, the English formerly obtained most of their pears from France, the United States now leads France in the pear trade with Great Britain.
Five years ago France sent pears to the value of $74,305; last year
the value had fallen to $55,430.
The value of the importations from the United States rose from $224,885 in 1899, to $284,710 in 1903.

Word comes from one of the United States consuls in England that the apple-dealers and consumers in England deplore the decadence of the good old Hudson River Pippins, and although a considerable quantity was received there,
it will come up to the stand and for first-class trade. The California Newtowns have been received again in large quantities, but they are wanting in appearance, which is their chief recommendation.

DEATH INCREASE IN FRANCE
Race Suicide Is Not the Only Question
Which Troubles French
Populace.

It appears that it is not alone a question of race suicide that is troubling the sanitarians of France, but also the terrible increase in the death rate.

Dr. Lowenthal, who is a member of the commission which is investigating the causes of the shrinkage in census returns, is not exaggerating when he says in a recent article that "alcoholism alone is killing France." Tuberculosis, he continues, which of all diseases is the most easily avoided, is raging in France with more violence than in any other country in the world. Every year it kills more than 150,000 victims and contaminates more than half a millions more. Then typhoid, typhus, dysentery, scarletina and other diseases and infectious maladies, which are decreasing in England, Germany, Switzerland, Belgium, Holland, Sweden and Norway, are, on the other hand, remaining at a very high average in France, same even showing a marked tendency to develop.
Smallpox, which has nearly disappeared from every civilized land, continues to make thousands of victims in France and her colonies.
Such is the gist of Dr. Lowenthal's article, and it cannot be said that he is inclined to be unduly pessimistic.

RAREST PLANT IN WORLD.

Big Pitcher Which Catches and Digests All Kinds of Insects Has No Peer.

Both the greenhouse collection and the herbarium of the University of Pennsylvania are much richer for the long journey from which Dr. J. M. Macfarlane, professor of botany and director of the botanic garden, has returned, says the Philadelphia Record.

Already the newly arrived plants have been placed in the greenhouses in connection with biological hall and are recovering from any slight mal de debar that they may have felt.

Though widely separated geographically from the East Indian pitcher plants, this has also developed the curious habit of catching and digesting insects.

The Old Year Has Past....

Out and we are entering upon a new one. To my many friends and patrons, I wish to extend my heartfelt gratitude for the liberal and kind consideration given me during the year 1904, and ask you to share your business with me this year as you have so faithfully done in the past. My purpose is to carry a larger stock than ever before and sell everything at the lowest possible prices. My motto will be "Perfect Satisfaction Guaranteed to all who deal with me."

Very Respectfully.

PERSONAL GOSSIP.

Mr. Gano Henry arrived Sunday night from Ita Bina, Miss.

Mr. H. M. Bryan, of Louisville, came down Sunday.

Rev. J. D. Armistead preached in Cincinnati Sunday.

Mr. J. C. Duffy of Madisonville, was here Sunday.

Miss Mary Goldthwaite will shortly go to Owensboro to act as bridesmaid at an approaching wedding.

Rev. Dr. W. J. Darby, of Evansville, spent Sunday with Mr. James West.

Dr. H. L. Hille, of Roaring Spring, left last night for Oklahoma, on a prospecting tour.

A reunion of the Barker family was held the residence of Esq. T. M. Barker, Kennedy, last Thursday. The Esquire's pretty daughter, Miss Matie, made a most charming hostess. A seven course dinner was served.

Unique Musical Company.

The next course attraction will be early in February. On Jan. 27th Mr. L. H. Dibble presents the Wells-Greenawalt Unique Musical Company. We make this statement, as season tickets will not be good at this attraction. Tickets for the above attraction will be sold at following prices: General admission 50c, schools and colleges 35c, children under 12 years 25c. Reserved tickets may be found at Hardwick's at 50c each, no extra charge for reserving same.

The Unique Musical Company comes to us well recommended, and we thought an attraction of this kind would be well received. Remember this is not in the course, and season tickets are not good for this show.

DR. WOODARD

Again Made City Health Officer by Council.

At its meeting last week Dr. R. L. Woodard was re-elected City Health Officer for 1905 and the council designated a citizens' board of health, composed of Messrs. W. T. Tandy, R. E. Cooper and E. B. Lane.

Dr. Woodard has filled the duties of his office with great ability and entire satisfaction. His re-election is very gratifying to his many friends and the public generally.

Bent Her Double.

"I knew no one, for four weeks, when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at R. C. Hardwick's drug store; price 50c.

SUCCESS OF SEASON.

Play Constructed Strictly for Laughable Purposes.

Gus Hill's elaborate scenic and latest musical gaiety, "Happy Holigan," with a host of comedians, singers and pretty girls, coming to Holland's Opera House tonight, is an attraction calculated to interest every kind of play-goer from one point of view or another. Scenically the piece is beautifully presented, while the costumes are rich and in excellent taste. The cast includes such well-known performers and artists as John Price, Frank McNish, Ruby Raymond, Eva Thacker, Chas. Grambligh, Charles Saunders and John Pettigill, while the chorus of twenty ladies is largely made up from those formerly with the New York Casino and the principal opera organizations. There are thirty odd musical numbers embracing duets, octets, sextets and general ensembles. Specialties alternate with the music and incidents carefully designed and organized into an avalanche of comedy and a perfect whirlwind of laughter.
